

REVISED-NOTIFICATION

Release of Offer letters for CHO Jan-2020 Session (Batch Apr-2020 to Sep-2020)

- In Phase-I, offer letters have been released to 2955 shortlisted candidates as per merit.

UR	UR-PH	OBC	OBC-PH	SC	SC-PH	ST	ST-PH	Total
1454	6	818	14	629	8	26	0	2955

Note:- Above bifurcation done based on reservation roster points.

- District allocation to the candidate is based on multiple criteria such as:
 - (a) Merit obtained in written exam and shortlisted under the category;
 - (b) Availability of the vacancy under reservation category in the respective district.
 - (c) Location preferences provided by the candidates.

However, it is to notify that location preferences are taken only as one of the parameters for district allocation and any claim regarding the same is not the right of the candidate. No claim regarding district allocation will be entertained.

- The offer letter may be released to the next 240 candidates as per merit subject to the approval of 6 new RHFWTC by the Government of India.
- After the aforesaid recruitment process of Phase-I & Phase-II, if any location remains vacant for joining then the same may be offered to a remaining pool of shortlisted candidates as per merit.
- In case all the vacancies under given locations are filled up for Jan-2020 Session (Batch Apr- 2020 to Sep-2020), then remaining shortlisted candidates shall be accommodated in the next phase of CHO Session, subject to the approval of Government of India.